Unit 2F: An introduction to the next family of words, عَلَّمَ يُعَلِّمُ تَعَلَّمَ

At this point we have dealt with regular and irregular cases of the أَسْلَمَ family. Because we now have some experience in constructing nine words, we will have an easier time dealing with the next family. The main thing students have to bear in mind is that for each family, 3 words are unique and must be memorized. As for the rest, we will be constructing them exactly the way we did for أَسْلَمَ. So, the three words students must now know by heart are عَلَّمَ يُعَلِّمُ تَعَلَّمَ in which عَلَّمَ is the past tense, يُعَلِّمُ is the present tense and تَعَلَّمَ is the masdar.

The passive version of أَسْلَمَ is أُسْلِمَ. Similarly the passive version of عَلَّمَ is عَلِّمَ.

The passive version of يُسَلِّمُ is يُسَلَّمُ. Similarly the passive version of يُعَلِّمُ is يُعَلَّمُ.

To construct a command from أَسْلَمَ we made أَسْلِمْ. To construct a command out of عَلَّمَ, we make عَلِّمْ.

To forbid, we transformed يُسَلِّمُ into لَا تُسَلِّمُ. To forbid using يُعَلِّمُ as a base, we construct لَا تُعَلِّمُ.

The ism faa'il and ism maf'ool based on يُسَلِّمُ and يُسَلَّمُ were مُسَلِّمٌ and مُسَلَّمٌ respectively. The ism faa'il & ism maf'ool based on يُعَلِّمُ and يُعَلَّمُ are مُعَلِّمٌ and مُعَلَّمٌ respectively.

The masdar for أَسْلَمَ يُسَلِّمُ was إِسْلَامٌ while عَلَّمَ يُعَلِّمُ has the masdar تَعَلُّمٌ.

The only new thing you have to get used to is the fact that the past, present and masdar look different. Constructing the past passive, present passive, commanding, forbidding, ism faa'il & ism maf'ool is all entirely based on the same method we applied when learning the أَسْلَمَ family. The nine words in sequence would be:

عَلَّمَ يُعَلِّمُ يُعَلَّمُ عَلِّمْ لَا تُعَلِّمُ مُعَلِّمٌ مُعَلَّمٌ تَعَلَّمَ

Another example would be

كَرَّرَ يُكْرِّرُ يُكْرَّمُ كَرِّرْ لَا تُكْرِّرُ مُكْرِّرٌ مُكْرَّمٌ تَكْرِيرٌ

PRACTICE WORDS:

Try to accent the following not by copying the first line, but from memory. Try to translate each cell as you go along.

Meanings Implied in the أَسْلَمَ يُسَلِّمُ إِسْلَامًا Family

Patterns in the Arabic language influence meanings of the original root letters. Each pattern carries its own set of implications. These implications, because they are so many in number, are usually not memorized except by highly specialized grammarians. For the student of the Arabic language, these implications on meaning are an important study and they should understand how to use this document as a reference. In general, patterns help in determining meaning but no categorical statements about a particular pattern can be made.

Classical grammarians list fifteen possibilities in terms of meaning stemming from the إفعال family. I am listing them here with a few examples for each.

1. تَعْدِيَةٌ Transitivity

Leading the action away to someone other than the self

- جَلَسَ حَامِدٌ (Hamid sat.) > أَجْلَسَ حَامِداً (He seated Hamid.)
- خَرَجَ حَامِداً (Hamid left) > أَخْرَجَ حَامِداً (He expelled Hamid.)
- عَلِمَ حَامِداً (Hamid knew.) > أَعْلَمَ حَامِداً (He informed Hamid.)
- نَزَلَ (He came down.) > أَنْزَلَ (He sent down.)

2. إِتِّدَاءٌ Generating New Meaning

The root words produce meanings completely unrelated to the original form

- شَفِيقٌ (He was benevolent.) > أَشْفَقَ (He was scared.)
- أَمِنَ (He became trustworthy.) > آمَنَ (He believed.)
- سَلِمَ (He got better/he was safe) > أَسْلَمَ (He became a Muslim.)
- عَرَضَ (He requested/ presented.) > أَعْرَضَ (He turned away.)
- سَرَفَ (He became neglectful.) > أَسْرَفَ (He spent wastefully.)
- نَدَرَ (He devoted something to the Divine.) > أَنْذَرَ (He warned.)

3. وَحْدَانٌ Attributing a Conclusive Opinion

The مفعول attributes the root meanings as an adjective to the فاعل.

- بَخِيلٌ (He was cheap.) > أَبْخَلَكَ (He found you cheap.)
- عَظِيمٌ (He was great.) > أَعْظَمَكَ (He found you great. He held you in great esteem.)

4. Removal or Relief سَلَب

The فاعل relieves himself or the مَفْعُول of the root meaning

- اَشْكَأَكَ (He resolved your complaint.) > شَكَى (He complained.)
- أَشْفَى (He became free of needing a cure./ He was no longer sick.) > شَفَا (He cured.)
- أَقْسَطَ (He distanced himself from wrongdoing.) > قُسُوْطُ (wrongdoing)

5. Acquiring a New Feature صَدْرُورَة

The فاعل is transformed in that it gains a transforming adjective..

- أَلْبَنَتِ النَّاقَةُ (The she-camel began to lactate.) > لَبْنٌ (Milk)
- أَخْرَفَتِ النَّاقَةُ (The she-camel gave birth in the fall.) > خَرُوفٌ (Fall.)

- أَطْفَلَتِ مَرْيَمٌ (Maryam had a baby.) > طِفْلٌ (Baby)

- أَتَمَّرَ النَّخْلُ (The palm tree became full of dates.) > تَمْرٌ (Date.)
- أَشْغَلَكَ (He made you extremely busy.) > شُغْلٌ (Preoccupation)
